

MUSIC FROM THE CROOKED ROAD

MOUNTAIN MUSIC OF VIRGINIA

JEFFERSON CENTER
Entertaining ideas and audiences

Live Music • Instrument Exhibits • Film Screenings • Panel Discussions • Artisans • And Much More! Details on Back

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 2010

CROOKED ROAD EVENT AT THE FLOYD COUNTRY STORE

Enjoy music by award winning fiddler Brian Grimm and Friends from Independence VA.

A film screening of the new documentary "From Wood to Singing Guitar" showcasing

Wayne Henderson, master musician and luthier from Rugby, VA. Presented by film-maker Shawn Lind from Appalshop.

A sneak peek of a documentary by Amy Adams called "Uncovering the Secrets of the Strad" showcasing Arthur Conner, fiddle maker from Copper Hill, VA.

Folklorist Joe Wilson will emcee the event. This event is FREE and starts at 7 pm at the Floyd Country Store.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 2010

HISTORY OF RECORDING MOUNTAIN MUSIC OF VIRGINIA

5 pm - Music Lab at Jefferson Center

A lecture/demonstration by historian Kinny Rorrer on the History of Recording Mountain Music. Enjoy an up-close tour of the state-of-the-art Music Lab with a special exhibit of antique recording machines from the last 100+ years. Limited seating, so please call to make reservations - (540) 343-2624 ext 215.

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 2010

Instrument Exhibits

4 pm - Jefferson Center's Fralin Atrium

Enjoy the incredible craftsmanship of the Crooked Road instrument makers.

Instruments by Wayne Henderson, Randall Ellers, Kirk Sutphin, and Jackson Cunningham plus many more!

Panel Discussions - Jefferson Center's Rehearsal Hall

Two panel discussions produced by the National Council of Traditional Arts and moderated by Jon Lohman from the Virginia Foundation for Humanities.

6 pm - "Women in Mountain Music" with Elizabeth LaPrelle, Amber Collins, Emily Spencer and Martha Spencer.

6:45 pm - "The Creative Process...Finding your voice within a tradition" with Eddie Bond, Sammy Shelor, Steve Barr, Jacob Eller, Wayne Henderson and Josh Pickett.

Music from the Crooked Road – Mountain Music of Virginia

8 pm - Jefferson Center's Shaftman Performance Hall

Featuring unique collaborations with the Crooked Road musicians curated by the National Council for Traditional Arts. Wayne Henderson, Sammy Shelor, The Whitetop Mountain Band, Amber Collins and No Speed Limit, Elizabeth LaPrelle, and Kirk Sutphin and Eddie Bond.

More at www.jeffcenter.org. Phone: (540) 345-2550

