

A COMMUNITY at WAR

THE CIVIL WAR IN THE LOWER SHENANDOAH VALLEY

AN EXHIBITION AT THE KURTZ

This exhibition explores the homefront—the social, economic, medical and industrial impact of the Civil War on Shenandoah Valley communities.

Exhibition Dates: May 20 - September 5, 1995

Hours: Monday - Saturday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. • Sundays, noon to 5 p.m.

Admission: Adults $2.00 • Children under 12, free

Location: The Kurtz Cultural Center
2 North Cameron Street
Winchester, Virginia 22601
703/722-6367

This project is funded in part by a grant from the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities & Public Policy.